4 Questions on State Ballot November 8th

There are four state questions to be voted on when the people of Arkansas go to the polls next Tuesday, November 8.

If you are opposed to Big Government, larger debt, and heavier taxes, you will be tempted to vote against all four measures.

However, it is this newspaper's opinion that three should be defeated and one approved. Before the election we will offer you a sample marked ballot, but today we are discussing the four propositions in detail.

INITIATED ACT NO. 1 (Wages and Hours) — This was put on the ballot by organized labor. It proposes to fix a minimum wage of 80 cents an hour, rising to $1 in the third year, and to establish overtime rates of pay beginning after 48 hours a week, and falling to 40 hours in the third year.

It is a fair assumption to say that what the union organizers were unable to do by negotiation with employers they are now attempting to do by state law.

Furthermore, no law can keep employers from discharging burdensome employees and reducing the size of the labor market.

Before you attempt to do something for sweet charity's sake in the guise of a state labor law consider the tax load you may be building up for yourself by increasing the number of unemployables to be thrown on welfare assistance.

I have a signed letter from one of Hope's most conscientious merchants, a loyal civic worker and church leader, in which he writes:

"My ladies work on a salary and bonus. If we could do the volume, their rate of pay would exceed the minimum, but on volume for the past six years I just can not afford to pay more. The legislation proposed in the National Congress took into account the volume a business would have to do before being covered, but this is not so in the proposed Arkansas Act. I, sincerely, would like to pay more and would like to take more myself, if it were possible."

He encloses a confidential statement of his annual volume from 1954 through 1959. Obviously, Initiated Act No. 1 would put him out of business.

John L. Lewis, boss of the United Mine Workers, used to say, "The UMW hasn't time to deal with busted coal mines" — and he closed 'em down by the dozen. But it was tough on the towns he left behind.

My merchant's volume doesn't justify a full-time bookkeeper. But he would have to have one under Initiated Act No. 1, merely to keep up with the voluminous paper work. And sooner or later he would need a lawyer — to ward off the long nose of the State Commissioner of Labor, who could walk into any man's business house and examine all his private records, particularly the records of the citizen who didn't vote right in the last election.

Vote AGAINST Initiated Act No. 1.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 50 (Public Officials' Salaries) — This is a proposal to double the limit of salaries of state, county and city officials.

It is not selective — but an across-the-board proposal without regard to the merits of individual offices.

Your editor agrees that the office of governor is underpaid. But is the lieutenant governor, who is inactive except for emergencies, due an identical percentage increase?

No 50 checks it up to the legislature to make the actual salary increases. If you trust the legislature go ahead and vote for No. 50.

In view of the legislature's performance on taxes for the last decade you will be voting bad news for yourself. The Little Rock state house is a long way from here, and it is a demonstrated fact that the people have little control over it.

The tragedy for our friends in local courthouses everywhere is that they are tied up with the state-level people and the legislature.

Vote AGAINST Proposed Amendment No. 50.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 51 (Raising City Tax Ceilings) — This is a permissive measure, and final authority rests not with the distant legislature but with the home people or their locally elected officials.

The present ceiling on general fund municipal taxes is 5 mills. No. 51 would raise the ceiling to 10 mills. The new tax could be approved, just as the present tax is, by city officials without a popular vote. But of course the officials would be answerable to the people in the next election.

The present ceiling on taxes for bonded indebtedness is 5 mills. No. 51 would wipe out the millage ceiling for bond issues — but each bond question would have to be voted on by the people.

No. 51 doesn't mean much to Hope. We have the municipal water & light plant to call on for public financing. But No. 51 means a great deal to cities without municipal plants. Population has moved out of the country and into the towns, and the constitutional ceiling of 5 mills is strangling city development. After all, No. 51 merely lets the people vote higher taxes if they choose to do so.

It is ridiculous to attempt to hold the cities to a 5-mill tax when the public schools' 18-mill ceiling was removed and made unlimited years ago.

Vote FOR Proposed Amendment No. 51.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 52 (School Closing) — As between political tampering with the public schools and the position taken by the Arkansas Education Association this newspaper will ride with the AEA.

We aren't discussing No. 52 — for the simple reason that the theory that some substitute can be found for free public education is beyond our grasp.

Vote AGAINST Proposed Amendment No. 52.

Is Promised by Kennedy

By GEOFFREY GOULD

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy today pledged that next year a Democratic Congress and president "will enact a bill to raise teacher salaries."

The presidential candidate also said: "One of the first items on the Democratic agenda in 1961 is the passage of an adequate bill for school construction."

He outlined these promises and others in the education field in a talk prepared for a "key to victory" breakfast, before hopping south to San Diego and then north to San Jose and San Francisco.

Kennedy's campaign explodes into a frenzied climax this week. After his San Francisco appearance, he will fly to Phoenix, Ariz. Between now and election night, he'll touch 16 states. A stop at Detroit, Mich. on Friday had to be dropped because it just couldn't be fitted into the tight schedule.

A new and mocking note toward Vice President Richard M. Nixon again entered Kennedy's tone Tuesday, a kaleidoscope day that brought him here from the East Coast for a mammoth downtown motordrome at noon.

As he did the day before, Kennedy lauded Nixon for bringing President Eisenhower into the campaign in the closing days before the election next Tuesday.

At a rally at the Douglas Aircraft plant in Long Beach, Kennedy said, "Yesterday I understand Mr. Nixon spent two hours and a half in the White House asking the President to go with him to Pittsburgh and Cleveland."

"Mr. Eisenhower is not a candidate, Mr. Nixon is. And if he can't stand up to the American people, if he won't come and meet me in a fifth debate, how is he going to stand up to Mr. Khrushchev?"

(Actually, the President will not be accompanied by Nixon at Pittsburgh and Cleveland.)

Kennedy again sought to point up the divergence of views among some Republican leaders by saying:

Amendments Discussed at Kiwanis Meet

City Attorney C. V. Nunn Jr., speaking before Hope Kiwanis Club yesterday, discussed proposed state constitutional amendments 51 and 52 and also proposed Initiated Act No. 1.

He urged adoption of No. 51, commonly called the "home rule amendment" which gives municipalities the right to ballot for the purpose of levying increased millage tax for city improvements.

He pointed out the good and bad features of proposed amendment 52, known as the school closing law by local option, and urged his listeners to study thoroughly all of the proposals before voting.

The speaker attacked proposed Initiated Act No. 1 as a proposal that would eliminate many jobs for Arkansas people and would bring increased hardships on both employer and employee. This is the minimum wage proposal.

Guest of the club were Henry Nesser and Bob Tinsley of Texarkana.

An item in this morning's news from Hollywood reveals "Actor Bert Spencer, 50, suffered a crushed leg, which later was amputated at a Hollywood hospital, during the filming of a 'Laramie' television episode when a stage coach plunged downhill and overturned, trapping him beneath."

Navy Commander Declares Forces Strong Enough to Protect Guantanamo Base

Auto Club Against City License Tax

By ELTON FAY

AP Military Affairs Writer

GUANTANAMO, NAVY BASE, Cuba, (AP) — The top U.S. naval commander in this area said today defense forces "now at the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay should be able to repel any attack until reinforcements can be sent."

Rear Adm. Allen Smith, commander of the Caribbean's 10th Naval District, told visiting newsmen, "the situation is tense because we are in a position of waiting for someone else to do something."

The admiral emphasized the United States is not pursuing any aggressive action against Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime.

Castro has accused the U.S. government of planning some sort of provocative incident to give a pretext for American military intervention in Cuba. U.S. officials have denied the charge, but President Eisenhower warned in a statement Tuesday that because of the Guantanamo base's "importance to the defense of the entire hemisphere," the United States "will take whatever steps may be appropriated to defend the base."

Smith disclosed that mine fields were planted along the boundary fence of the 45-square-mile Guantanamo reservation several weeks ago.

"The mine fields are labeled plainly," he said. "Dr. Castro has stepped up his tempo and we have taken steps accordingly. We have made our defenses a little bit tighter."

Defending forces include a few hundred Marines, Marine and Navy fighter plane squadron that come here for training purposes, destroyers usually anchored in the bay or nearby waters, plus virtually every one of the several thousand military men on the base.

"We are hoping they will not bother us but we are ready if they do," said the admiral. "We would like to hold out at least for a 72-hour period."

This should be time enough for more Marine ground forces, jet fighter outfits and ships from the United States and nearby Caribbean areas to arrive at Guantanamo.

U.S. Couple Released But Can't Leave

HAVANA (AP) — Cuban officials said today they have provisionally released Mr. and Mrs. William A. Chiara, formerly of New Jersey, pending disposition of currency and export violation charges. They were told not to try to leave Cuba.

The provisional release was effected during the Chiara's appearance before a local court. They had been kept under house arrest at their Havana hotel since last Friday.

Cuban officials said Chiara and his wife, who once lived here, came back as tourists and were detained at Havana International Airport when they tried to leave with $500 worth of cigars and 3,000 Cuban pesos.

The Chiara's apparently were caught in a tightening of Cuban monetary controls that includes complete searches of many persons trying to leave Cuba.

Chiara, an Italian-born American, used to manage the Norgulf Terminals Corp. here until it was seized by the regime. He and his wife, Mary, 48, have lived in Whippany, Jersey City and Down, N.J. They moved to Cuba 12 years ago and later to Florida.

Outflow of Gold Over $1 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1960 outflow of gold from the United States has passed the billion-dollar mark, the Treasury disclosed today.

The latest Treasury financial statement showed that the United States owed $1,417,000,000 of gold as of last Friday night. This represented a drop of $45 million from the Thursday total.

Since the first of the year, the outflow has totaled $1,039,000,000. Of this amount $905 million has moved into foreign hands since June 30.

The United States buys and sells gold at the official price of $35 an ounce. It deals only with foreign governments and central banks.

Opening a side-by-side campaign which will take the President and vice president in a series of New York City rallies and a parade to Herald Square, Eisenhower gave Nixon and Lodge a ringing endorsement in their bid against the Democratic presidential nominee, Sen. John F. Kennedy, and his running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

On seven points, Eisenhower said Nixon and Lodge stand out above their Democratic opponents.

The President said he compares the two political teams on these points:

1. Character, 2. Moral courage, 3. Capacity, 4. Readiness to undertake disagreeable tasks, 5. Experience, 6. Ability to make decisions, and 7. Devotion and dedication to the United States.

Standing bareheaded in bright morning sunshine, the President expressed his concern over the issues involved in the presidential election.

Eisenhower, wearing a brown business suit, wore no topcoat despite the stiff breeze that was blowing.

The President said he wanted to give his full endorsement to the Nixon-Lodge ticket. With emphasis in his voice, Eisenhower said solemnly and slowly:

"Richard Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge offer to America the finest type of leadership today that is available to the nation."

The President went on to say that the two nominees "can do better than anyone else toward keeping the peace . . . and toward lifting from the backs of mankind."

President Has Reinforced Nixon Drive

By JACK BELL

NEW YORK (AP) — President Eisenhower said today that Vice President Nixon and his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, offer the nation "the finest type of leadership that is available to the nation."

Eisenhower joined campaign forces with Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, at a whirl-blow rally at the big Roosevelt Field Shopping Center in suburban Long Island.

The President and the man who hopes to become his successor met at the field after helicopter flights.

Eisenhower flew there from Idlewild Airport and Nixon from Brooklyn, where he spoke at a breakfast rally.

Opening a side-by-side campaign which will take the President and vice president in a series of New York City rallies and a parade to Herald Square, Eisenhower gave Nixon and Lodge a ringing endorsement in their bid against the Democratic presidential nominee, Sen. John F. Kennedy, and his running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

Loose Stock Threat Rises on Highways

LITTLE ROCK — The board of directors of the Arkansas Automobile Club at their quarterly meeting today expressed concern over reports which indicate that motor vehicle accidents on Arkansas highways involving stray live stock are again on the increase.

Several members have reported recently to the club that the number of stray stock is increasing and creating hazardous motoring conditions. This stray stock situation had been improving since the enactment of Act 145 of 1955. In 1959, the annual accident record showed a decline in the state.

Now as an indication of a trend in accidents involving stray animals, in the four months from July until October, 1959, there were a total of 32 accidents as compared to 53 accident from July 1 to Oct. 21, 1960.

This means almost twice as many accidents during ten days less time. In this period in 1959, there were 29 accidents involving property damage and three involving bodily injury and no fatalities. This year, however, there have been 53 involving property damage, 18 involving bodily injury and one death. In other words, in the same period of time the accident rate has more than doubled as the severity has increased many fold.

Life With Father Is Not Easy

By HELEN WORDEN BASKINS

Dear Helen:
Mother passed away three years ago and left Father alone. He is almost 80, very active and in good health. He has a large house. We had a home of our own and a wonderful life together. We sold our home to move in and take care of him. I'm about ready to agree that no house is large enough for two families. My nerves are on edge. We argue where once we agreed. We don't feel free to do any of the things we used to. Our teenagers, two girls and boy, can't have their friends over because they make too much noise for Father.
I'm just one of four children but the only one who lives near him. The others are quite a distance away. We've taken care of Father for two years now. He tries to run our lives, as well as the children's. There is constant conflict. Would it be selfish of me to want a home of our own again?
—Puddled

Dear Puddled: Fat from being selfish. It would be best for all concerned if you and your family moved back into a home of your own. Dorothy Dix once wrote, "Don't live with your parents or let your parents live with you. Old people are often self-centered and tyrannical." Of course, children owe a great deal to their parents, but they don't owe the sacrifice of their entire lives. There is no problem to which we bring so much mawkish sentimentality.
Dear Helen:
How many date nights should a girl have? She holds a part-time job and goes to school two nights a week. I do not like to bind her with too many "can'ts" but I feel uneasy leaving her alone for a week-end, or at night. She says I treat her like a child. Her friends visit their college dates alone week-ends. I have a great sense of responsibility, yet I do want to trust her. What should I do?
—Mrs. A.

Life With Father Is Not Easy

By HELEN WORDEN BASKINS

Dear Helen:
I am 26 years old and dating an 18-year-old man. I know he loves me very much because he comes to see me every day after school. Although I know it is not considered proper by our society to have a relationship where there is such a difference in years, we don't feel we should break up. He is mature for his age. I am young at heart. He wants me to go to his Senior Prom with him because he is proud of me. My mother says this is wrong. What is your opinion?
—Young At Heart

Dear Young At Heart: Be realistic. You're old enough to be this man's grandmother. Don't kid yourself into believing that this May and December romance can make you anything but the laughing stock of the town. Save yourself a lot of grief. Put a stop to it now.
Dear Helen:
I read your column about the woman who hollers and yells at her children. This fits me to a T. God has given me two wonderful children. I love them very much but, God forgive me, I scream at them most of the time.
I believe this is partly caused

THE J. J. WATKINS OF HARRISON, ARKANSAS... FEATURED IN LIFE MAGAZINE, NOVEMBER 7 ISSUE... BE SURE YOU SEE IT!

"EVERYTHING STAYS SO CLEAN," says Mrs. Watkins. "We've rediscovered the fun of romping on the floor, and we never think of dirt or drafts. You can't tell our drapes and carpet from the day we put them in," she adds. "And I've found that our electric heating keeps us all so healthy, and reduces family colds."

"Our flameless electric house heating is so clean you've got to live with it to believe it."

THIS GOLD MEDALLION identifies the Watkins' Dutch Colonial house as a total electric home, flameless electric house heating, flameless electric appliances. Full Housepower Wiring and decorative light for living enhance its value and quality as a Gold Medallion Home. Modern today, it will be modern tomorrow.

"COOKING ELECTRICALLY IS SO CLEAN," says Mrs. Watkins, as the girls admire her pecan pies, a Boone County specialty. "I couldn't have these oil-finish cabinets if I had to keep scrubbing them. And then, too," she adds, "electric cooking's wonderful in the summer because my kitchen doesn't heat up."

The J. J. Watkins of Route #1, Harrison, Arkansas, take pride in being one of more than 850,000 families who are leading the trend to clean, comfortable electric heat in their total electric Gold Medallion Home.

What a wonderful change total electric living has made in the lives of the Watkins and people like them all over America.
Life is more fun for the whole family. The climate indoors is like a day in springtime all year 'round. Mothers boast of better health in their families, say that colds, sinus, allergies are less of a problem than ever before.
In these new, electrically heated homes, life has a new informality and feeling of relaxation. Growups rediscover the fun of sitting on the floor and never think of dirt or drafts.
Mothers find more time to share in family activities, now that laundry cleaning up has been minimized with the help of quiet electric appliances. And with ample circuits and conveniently placed outlets in every room to give all appliances full power, blown fuses are a thing of the past.
Parents especially treasure the secure, relaxed atmosphere that's part of knowing that their house heating, water heating, cooking and clothes drying are flameless.
These are some of the reasons why more than 850,000 progressive families who now own total electric Gold Medallion Homes enjoy their modern way of living proudly.
And you will be agreeably surprised when you learn how modest the cost can be to introduce your family to the pleasure of this new way of living. If you're building, buying or modernizing, make it a point to talk it over with the electric utility people in your area.

That's us... and we will be glad to help.
ARKANSAS POWER & LIGHT COMPANY
HELPING BUILD ARKANSAS

"I'M SOLD ON ELECTRIC CLOTHES DRYING. It's so safe and foolproof," is Joe Watkins' comment, as he helps fold the laundry. Mrs. Watkins adds: "My children's things, even corduroys, come out nice and fluffy. And the white clothes stay white."

"WE NEVER WORRY about the children around our flameless water heater," says Mrs. Watkins, as Mary Alice and Betty Lee play hide and seek in the closet where the water heater's installed. "And I like the fact that our electric water heater keeps away mice, roaches and needs no fire."

Rice Picked to Defeat Porks in Crucial Game

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Just another reminder the late Bob Zuppke once explained a football as a prolate spheroid filled with crazy bounces. There were 10 real crazy bounces along with the 39 correct guesses last week for a 709 average. (Season's figures: 250 right, 81 wrong, 755 average.)

This week's picks:

Towson over Minnesota: Towson, with its speed, is the irresistible force. Minnesota, with its powerful line, is the immovable object. On the football field speed usually wins.

Missouri over Colorado: Mel West and his playmates guide the Tigers to a Big Eight Conference Championship.

Navy over Duke: Joe Bellino will find a way of bringing sadness to the Durham crowd. Another close one.

Ohio State over Indiana: A mere romp for the Buckeyes.

Mississippi over Chattanooga: How did this ever get in here?

Southern California over Washington: It might be different if Bob Schlored were able to play for the Huskies.

Tennessee over Georgia Tech: But the Volunteers will have their hands full with Stan Gann.

Syracuse over Army: The Cadets have been playing in an entirely different league.

Elsewhere: Rice over Arkansas, Baylor over Texas, Auburn over Mississippi State, Pittsburgh over Notre Dame, UCLA over California, Purdue over Michigan.

Leagues Are Ordered to End Bickering

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick has ordered the American and National leagues to cease their bickering and get together on any future expansion.

Frick, openly disturbed over competition for the more lucrative franchises, met with league presidents Joe Cronin and Warren Giles Tuesday and insisted on complete cooperation.

"I don't give a darn about the two leagues," he said. "I don't care who goes where as long as the new cities meet the requirements. Any further expansion steps should be taken jointly. This doesn't mean one league cannot expand without the other. It simply means that one league should let the other know of its plans—and also the commissioner. I'm against secret meetings in which a city suddenly finds it has a major league franchise."

Frick announced a procedure for 1961 staffing of Los Angeles and Washington, the new American League clubs. No provisions were made to supply players for Houston and New York, the new National League clubs, since they are not to operate until 1962.

Los Angeles and Washington will be entitled to sign free agents and buy or trade players under existing rules. They also will have special draft privileges.

Under normal rules, they would not be permitted to draft, because they didn't operate last season. But, at the end of the regular major league draft Nov. 28, they can get two players each.

matter of FACT

The Arctic musk ox's defense is nearly airtight against natural enemies. But it's his Achilles heel against men with guns. Endangered herds form a circle, facing their enemy with a ring of death-dealing horns. This wards off wolves but not hunters. Where not protected by law, the musk ox hasn't much chance of survival.

Reflections on Election of Lincoln

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A century ago this Sunday, Abraham Lincoln was elected president of the United States. Here are some reflections on that event by Carl Sandburg, whose life and works are intertwined with Lincoln.

He observes that as the Republic nears the close of another presidential campaign, there are parallels for both camps with the 1860 race.

For Sen. John F. Kennedy: "The debates with Stephen Douglas made Lincoln a national figure. They were printed in full in the Chicago and New York papers, as well as in political journals." Most political observers agree, that Kennedy's performance in the great debates surged his campaign, diminishing the "immaturity" issue.

For Vice President Richard M. Nixon: "Lincoln drove Douglas to make stands that split the Democratic party. Lincoln drew less than half of the combined vote but won because the South would not go for Douglas." Today's Republicans are looking to the South to bolster Nixon's chances.

Such matters are straws in the political whirlwind, but the 1860 and 1960 campaigns offer striking coincidences. Most notable is the recurrence of the debates. The Lincoln-Douglas encounter was in a senatorial race in 1858. Lincoln lost, but his biographer suggests that debates actually won him the presidency.

"Lincoln did little campaigning in 1860," Sandburg said. "The debates had been printed in book form, and he let the book speak for him."

Sandburg was speaking in the studio office where he is consulting on filming of "The Greatest Story Ever Told." The natural question was: How does he compare the two series of debates?

He replied with a poet's scorn: "I would like to have heard one sentence in the televised debates that was well constructed and elevating."

He was truck in the temple. The children, aged 7, 5, 2 and 1, were asleep in another room.

Mrs. Lewis said she took them to a neighbor's and then drove to the Jonesboro police station.

Coaches Approve Wild Card Rule

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—College football's wild card substitution rule apparently has received the overwhelming approval of coaches and fans alike, the chairman of the NCAA Rules Committee said today.

Gen. Robert R. Neyland, University of Tennessee athletic director and head of the committee, said he had heard nothing but praise for the rule.

"It definitely has speeded up the college game, and I think has made it more interesting," Neyland said.

The rule allows a coach to send in one player between plays without taking a time out or a penalty.

Body Is Found

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The body of Moscow L. Smith, 68, of Ozark, was found Tuesday beneath a 200-foot cliff at the edge of the North Little Rock Veterans Hospital grounds.

Smith, a patient at the hospital since 1932, disappeared June 22. Police said he apparently fell from the cliff.

Tigers May Not Wait on Stengel

DETROIT (AP)—An impatient John F. Stengel may not be able to wait the three weeks Casey Stengel says it would take him to decide whether he wants to manage the Detroit Tigers.

Felzer, the club's president and principal owner, made a surprise trip to the West Coast and visited for several hours with Stengel Tuesday.

Felzer offered Stengel a multi-year contract to become the eighth manager of the Tigers in 10 seasons. But Stengel, 70, fired last month after a dozen seasons as manager of the New York Yankees, said he wanted to think it over. Stengel said he had several offers in baseball but would make no decision for about three weeks because he wanted to "rest and take it easy."

The Tigers have been without a manager since early last month when Joe Gordon stunned them with a surprise resignation. A few days later, Felzer acquired majority control of the sixth-place team.

Not All Hunters Ask Longer Hours

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Not all duck hunters want longer hunting hours. A group here wants the federal Fish and Wildlife Service to cut an hour off daily shooting hours.

W. H. Claypool, owner of a farm and spokesman for the group, said Tuesday that large numbers of ducks have arrived already nearly a month before the Nov. 23 start of the Arkansas season.

Claypool's group contends that allowing shooting until sundown in northern states, which have earlier seasons, is driving ducks south prematurely. Ducks feed during daylight, he said, and leave rest areas about an hour before sunset to feed.

If shooting were halted an hour before sundown, the group said in a letter to the federal agency, ducks would stay in the north until cold weather drove them south.

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon at such an election adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. For the payment of any indebtedness existing at the time of the adoption of this amendment; for the purchase of rights of way for construction of public streets, alleys, boulevards, and expressways, within the corporate limits of such municipality for the construction, widening or straightening of streets, alleys, boulevards, expressways, and parking facilities, within the corporate limits of such municipality; for the purchase, development and improvement of public parks, airports, flying fields, and recreational facilities located either within or without the corporate limits of such municipality; for the construction of sewers and comfort stations; for the purchase of fire alarm systems; for the purchase of street, police or fire fighting apparatus and equipment; for the purchase of street and sewer cleaning equipment and apparatus; for the purchase of sites for construction of, and equipment of city halls, auditoriums, court houses, prisons, libraries, hospitals, clinics, public abattoirs, incinerators or garbage disposal or sewage treatment plants; for building for the housing of street, police or fire fighting apparatus and equipment; for the construction of viaducts and bridges; for the purpose of purchasing, extending, improving, enlarging, building, or construction of water works or light plants, and distribution systems, and for the purchase of sites for, or the improvement of, or the acquisition, development and construction of other municipal or public facilities, and improvements, and for the purchase, development and construction of other municipal facilities which are wholly or partially located outside the boundaries of the State.

In order to provide for the payment of the bonds issued under the provisions of this amendment, and interest thereon, a special tax in addition to the legal rate permitted may be levied by municipalities on the real and personal taxable property therein. And any municipality issuing any bonds shall, before or at the time of doing so, levy a direct tax payable annually sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as the same matures, and also sufficient to pay and discharge the principal of all such bonds at their respective maturities. The special tax permitted by this amendment shall not be subject to any constitutional limitation; provided, however, the General Assembly may by legislative act limit the rate of such taxation, which limitation shall be effective only upon a special tax levied for the payment of bonds issued after the effective date of such legislative act.

Said bonds shall be serial, maturing annually after three years from date of issue, and shall be paid off as they mature, and no bonds issued under the authority of this amendment shall be issued for a longer period than forty years.

It shall be the duty of the mayor and city council or other governing body established by law, to exercise supervision over the sale of any bonds, which may be voted by the people at an election held for that purpose, and they shall expend economically the funds so provided for the specified purposes for which they were voted.

Said election shall be held at such times as the city council may designate by ordinance, which ordinance shall specifically state the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, and if for more than one purpose, provisions shall be made in said ordinance for balloting on each separate purpose; which ordinance shall state the sum total of the issue, the dates of maturity thereof and shall fix the date of election so that it shall not occur earlier than thirty days after the passage of said ordinance. Notice of said election shall be given by the mayor by advertisement weekly for at least four times, in some newspaper published in said municipality and having a bona fide circulation therein; the last publication to be not less than ten days prior to the date of said election.

Qualified voters of said municipality only shall have a right to vote at said elections. The result of said election shall be proclaimed by the mayor and the result as proclaimed shall be conclusive unless attacked in the courts within thirty days after the date of such proclamation. This amendment shall not repeal or affect any law relating to the organization of improvement districts.

SECTION 2. In addition to any existing Constitutional or Statutory provisions, and the powers granted under the provisions of this amendment, cities of the first and second class are hereby authorized to levy a tax on the real and personal property located within the corporate limits of five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed value of such property. That the revenues from such tax may be used for any municipal purpose now or hereafter authorized.

SECTION 3. The General Assembly may by legislative act allow cities of the first and second class to levy additional taxes for any municipal purpose, now or hereafter authorized, and such taxes or the rates thereof shall not be limited by any existing Constitutional provision.

SECTION 4. The salaries of officials and employees of cities of the first and second class shall be fixed by the governing body of such cities, and the amounts of such salaries shall not be limited by any existing Constitutional provision.

SECTION 5. This amendment shall be in force upon its adoption, and shall not require legislative action to put it into force and effect.

All provisions of this amendment, whenever at any annual school election, a majority of the qualified electors shall be treated as mandatory, and all provisions of the Constitution or amendments thereto in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 52

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Arkansas, and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon at such an election adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. Intelligence and virtue being the safeguards of liberty and bulwark of a free and good government; it is hereby declared to be the public policy that Arkansas shall ever provide financial aid whereby all residents of this State between the ages of six and eighteen years may, as desired by them or their parents or guardians, receive gratuitous instruction; and that the manner of administering such aid can best be determined at the local level.

SECTION 2. Financial aid to carry out the aforesaid declared policy of the people of this State shall be raised at both the State and local levels through taxation now or hereafter authorized by law. Financial aid at the State level shall be provided in such amounts, and distributed to school districts under such formula, or formulas, as the General Assembly shall, from time to time, determine; and financial aid at the local level shall be provided in such amounts as shall from time to time be determined by the qualified electors of the respective school districts.

SECTION 3. The qualified electors of each school district shall have the right to determine by their vote at a special election called for the purpose, the manner of applying the financial aid available for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years; and such instruction may be provided either: (a) through a system of free public schools whereof the district will provide the physical plant, employ instructors, and do any and all things necessary to maintain a general, suitable and efficient system of free schools to be operated by the district; or (b) through student education financial aid whereof the district will apply all available funds for the equal benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 4. Subject to such limitations as may be imposed by law, exclusive jurisdiction for the government of each school district shall be vested in a board of directors.

SECTION 5. There is hereby levied and there shall be collected an annual per capita tax of one dollar from each resident of this State over the age of twenty-one years, and the proceeds thereof shall be used for educational purposes in such manner as is now or as hereafter may be provided by law.

SECTION 6. Not less than fifteen days next preceding each annual school election, the board of directors of each school district shall prepare, approve and make public a proposed budget of expenditures in which there shall be set forth the amount of funds determined by the board as being necessary to provide, during the next following fiscal year, gratuitous instruction for residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years. The proposed budget shall set forth the estimated amounts, respectively, of funds necessary: (a) to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds; (b) to meet its other contractual obligations; (c) to pay insurance premiums on and cost of maintenance or custodial care of buildings and other property owned by the district; and (d), in such detail as the board shall determine, the estimated amount of funds required for other educational purposes. From the total of the aforementioned requirements for the fiscal year shall be deducted the estimated amount of funds to be available to the district from State aid and from all other sources other than the local property tax, and the remainder as so determined shall be designated and known as the budget deficit. Based upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the territorial bounds of the district for the then current year, the board of directors shall determine the rate of tax levy necessary to provide, when applied to the amount of said assessed valuation, funds of sufficient amount to meet the aforesaid budget deficit; and the rate of tax levy as so determined shall be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors of the district at the next following annual school election. The qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition shall approve the rate of tax levy proposed by the board of directors, then taxes shall be collected at the rate so approved. In the event the rate shall not be approved at any such election, then taxes shall be collected at the rate of thirty (30) mills on each dollar of assessed valuation, or at the rate approved at the next preceding annual school election, whichever rate shall be the lower figure. Provided, that no rate of tax levy shall ever be less than the aggregate of the rates of any continuing levies heretofore approved for the purpose of meeting the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds unless funds for the payment thereof shall have otherwise been specifically provided for.

SECTION 7. With respect to each school district, proposals for the issuance of bonds and for the collection of taxes at a continuing rate of levy for the payment thereof may be submitted by the board of directors for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at any annual school election; and upon petition of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district, or by resolution of the board of directors, such proposals may be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a special election called for the purpose by the County Judge. No school district may issue bonds unless a majority of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a school election shall approve the same, and no bonds or other evidences of debt hereafter issued by any school district shall be secured by a lien on the property of the district, and no district may pledge any of its revenues for the payment of said bonds or other evidences of debt, except revenues to be derived from the collection of taxes upon taxable property within the district under a continuing rate of levy approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at a school election. The principal amount of any proposed bond issue may include the estimated amount of interest to be due on such bonds during the first year.

SECTION 8. The manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of any school district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, effective immediately, from the then existing manner to any other manner authorized by Section 3 hereof, whenever the proposition of making such change shall be approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition at a special election called for that purpose by the County Judge of the county in which, all or the major portion of the land area within the territorial bounds of any such district is located. The County Judge shall call such special election within thirty days after the receipt by him: (a) of a petition containing the signatures of not less than a majority of the board of directors of the district; or (b) of petitions containing the signatures of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district. Provided, that not less than twelve months shall elapse after any such special election before another special election may be called for the purpose of again voting on the proposition of changing the manner of applying financial aid.

In each instance in which the manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed through student education financial aid, then all funds of the district, save only such funds as are necessary to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds, to meet its other contractual obligations, and to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, the district, shall be used for student education financial aid, and shall be applied equally for the benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 9. Either branch of the General Assembly at a regular or special session thereof may propose amendments to this measure, and, if any such proposal be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house such proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at a special election called for the purpose by the Governor; and if a majority of the qualified electors voting at such special election adopt such amendment the same shall be operative on and after the 30th day after the election at which it is approved, unless otherwise specified in the amendment. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to limit the power of the General Assembly to submit proposed amendments to this measure as provided by Section 22 of Article 19 of the Constitution of this State.

SECTION 10. The provisions of this measure are hereby declared to be severable.

SECTION 11. Article 14 and Amendments Nos. 11 and 40 to the Constitution of this State are hereby repealed.

SECTION 12. This amendment shall be self-executing, and its provisions shall be treated as mandatory, but laws shall be enacted by the General Assembly to facilitate its operation.

SECTION 13. This amendment shall take effect and be in full force on and after the date of its approval at the November, 1960 General Election.

TRIAL BY SLANDER

By Travis Macrae

THE STORY: John Hamilton dies unexpectedly of a heart attack, leaving Janet a widow with two boys to support. She considers returning to the field of teaching, in which she had had some experience before her marriage.

Janel decided that, with her limited teaching experience, her first step should be to attain for a master's degree as well as certification since an M.A. automatically guaranteed a higher salary. She wrote to Columbia, New York University, the New School and New York City College as well as the New York State Department of Education. She had a conference with a local school principal and mailed letters to three private schools in the county. She sent to her own college for a transcript of her courses.

The catalogues had arrived fairly promptly, but after reading them all carefully, she concluded she must be much more stupid than she had ever suspected. Somewhere, cunningly concealed in the academic language, there must be clear-cut instructions pointing precisely to those courses which were necessary for the degree of Master of Art in Education. No reply had come from the Department of Education. The private schools' had written back that no openings were available at the present time. The village principal had been kind, but had advised her to work through the university in which she enrolled and the elusive Department of Education. Her own college sent the transcript she had requested, but since she did not know what was required for certification, she also didn't know which of her college courses satisfied what requirements for what degree or purpose.

The minute she set foot on the campus — do they call it a campus in Manhattan? she wondered — she wished she'd chosen a smaller place.

Janel could not locate any faculty offices. She approached a matronly-looking woman who appeared to be a student. "Excuse me," Janel said, "but I'm trying to find someone to ask about courses and I can't... I don't know who to ask. Do you know if there's a —"

"You can get a catalogue right there in that office," the woman answered, pointing to the room ahead.

"I think I have every catalogue in the city," Janel said. "I don't understand them and —"

"What degree are you working for?" she asked pleasantly.

"I want to get my teacher's certificate and my master's."

"Are you matriculated?"

"I don't think so," Janel answered. "I just came in to register."

The woman smiled again. "A matriculated student is one who has been accepted as a candidate for a degree. But you can take courses toward matriculation." She spoke slowly as though explaining the fundamentals of the alphabet to a first grader.

"I'm beginning to wonder what I learned in college," Janel said. "I don't even know what courses I need."

The stout woman's brown eyes were understanding. "Here," she took Janel's catalogue and flipped the pages with an expert hand until she reached the proper page. "Now, these courses..."

Janel sighed as she checked Group Dynamics, Ed. 304, a comprehensive survey of group mechanisms, 2 p.s., Schlemenske Building, room 101, Tues. and Thurs. 6:00 p.m., Dr. Jason Whitling.

"When the class met for its first session, Janel wore flat shoes, her old coat and a sweater and skirt. She looked around, noticing again the faces of three nuns... a number of awfully young-looking women. It all appeared to be more at home than she, timidly, she sat down next to a woman with long straight black hair hanging over an immense orange coat. The woman extracted a chocolate bar from her pocket. From her purse she drew out a miniature ash tray and began to eat and smoke.

"When the instructor came in, Janel watched him make his way to the front of the room. He was older than she had expected, an instructor, to be, he seemed to take up a great deal of room. Was it, Janel wondered, simply because he was such a tall man, well over six feet? She studied his face, its features reminded her somewhat of an American Indian.

He introduced himself as Dr. Jason Whitling, spoke a few words of greeting and plunged into his subject. On the blackboard, in a sprawling hand, he listed references the class would need. While they copied the list into notebooks, he outlined the course and gave them an assignment for the following session.

However, after a few weeks of recastulating herself to a routine of study long forgotten, she began to relax. Dr. Whitling's interests lay not only in his own specialty but roamed widely, and he shared the contents of a literate mind with his class. He laced his lectures with provocative references from other fields, generating an obvious enthusiasm in his pupils as he talked. A born teacher, Janel decided, noticing the painstaking preparation that went into his work. Yet there remained an aloofness, a remoteness about him that discouraged a personal relationship between him and his students. She could not help wondering why, at his age, he still was an instructor instead of a full professor.

Warns of Late Promises in Campaign

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Charles P. Taft, chairman of the Fair Campaign Practices Committee, warned voters today not to be taken in by last-minute campaign attacks.

"In every election, charges that cannot be documented are raised until the last minute," Taft said in an address prepared for a meeting of the United Church Women and the St. Louis Council of Churches.

Taft said some last-minute charges may be legitimate, but those that are not are released "with the cynical knowledge that the facts probably won't catch up with them until after the votes are counted."

He urged voters to regard any new accusation just before election day with honest skepticism and if it's "exciting and strange, make sure it's also real and true."

White groups in the campaign, Taft said, have been found to consist almost entirely of fanatics and profit-seeking hangers-on.

With rare exceptions they are not in any organized religious groups and their number is infinitesimal among Protestants, Taft added.

President Has

the burden of disarmament." Then in a thrust at Kennedy the President added:

"No glittering promises, no glib oratory will give you this kind of leadership."

Eisenhower said that "for eight years I've worked with Nixon and Lodge, and they've shown the utmost enthusiasm—never a complaint or excuse—no matter how difficult the task they've done it effectively."

There was a tremendous cheer after that remark.

He emphasized that his concern for the United States will be just as great after he leaves office as when he was a second lieutenant and when he became president.

The crowd, estimated by police at 50,000 persons, gathered in the sunshine to hear the kickoff of a drive aimed at giving Nixon New York's vital 45 electoral votes.

Nixon told a wildly cheering crowd of 2,200 at a Brooklyn breakfast rally that in the past 10 days his campaign has "moved all over America."

He said the crowds that have greeted his whistle-stopping campaign over the nation have been the most enthusiastic he has ever seen.

"As I see it, this tide is rolling in the heartland of America. If we keep it rolling, and we're going up as they run down. We will have the greatest victory in the matter of electoral votes in the history of America," he said. "And this is what we're going to do." The vice president emphasized.

Nixon, accompanied by his wife Pat and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller left the rally in the Hotel St. George and flew by helicopter to join President Eisenhower and vice-presidential nominee Henry Cabot Lodge for campaigning in Nassau and Westchester counties, and New York City.

Nixon said that he and Lodge have "been through the fire. We have sat opposite Soviet Premier Khrushchev. We have never been fooled by him and we never will be fooled by him."

There was mounting hope in the Nixon camp, that crisp criticisms by Eisenhower of Sen. John F. Kennedy's views would boost Republican stock in doubtful New York.

Nixon geared himself to a change in pace from the bristling charges he hurled against Kennedy in a rip-roaring, crowd-rousing tour of Pennsylvania and upstate New York Tuesday.

The vice president branded as a "bare-faced lie," Kennedy's Oct. 24 assertion in Illinois that the GOP can "count on Richard M. Nixon to lead its wrecking crew" to sink Social Security.

For the New York City swing with Eisenhower, his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, the Nixon strategy was to leave the attacks to others. Nixon hoped to promote himself and Lodge as an experienced team equipped to carry out the President's policies and to preserve the peace.

The tension in the Nixon camp over unfavorable reports on the nominee's New York prospects surfaced Tuesday night in an airport speech at Rochester. Nixon denounced "so-called experts who say that upstate New York is going against the Republicans."

He supplemented this later by a blast at newspaper columnists and "hand-wringers" who he said are forecasting a Democratic victory.

"On election day they are going to get the surprise of their lives, and you are going to help give it to them," he told an applauding crowd of about 2,000 persons.

Some polls are showing Nixon running behind in New York State. There are indications he may not get the kind of support from upstate needed to offset the often sizable majorities New York City turns out for the Democrats.

Nixon's strategists contend their candidate can win without the Empire State. But they don't like to contemplate the political necessities involved.

Their thinking is that to corral New York's electoral votes, the vice president must appeal to the independents and to Democrats for the margin he needs. At the same time they recognize that unless they give the Republicans something to fight for, they may

ing. "Mr. Nixon takes a ride through New York City tomorrow. He has with him Gov. Rockefeller, Henry Cabot Lodge, President Eisenhower. Where is Barry Goldwater? I think it is only fair that they all get in the car and ride down Broadway."

Kennedy issued a statement saying the administration's decision to release an additional $165 million for development of the B70 supersonic bomber was a "transparent political maneuver."

Kennedy said the Democratic-controlled Congress actually appropriated $365 million this year for the B70 but the administration used only $110 million of it.

"That the Republican administration waits until a week before the election to release the funds speaks for itself," Kennedy said. "The objective is not to increase national defenses; it is to increase Republican votes."

Bushels of conflict and ticker tape cascaded down on Kennedy as he hit the downtown area at the noon hour. The crowds were huge, but so were those that greeted Nixon when he came here Oct. 14.

its importance to the defense of the entire hemisphere, particularly in the light of the intimate relations which now exist between the present government of Cuba and the Sino-Soviet bloc, it is essential that our position in Guantanamo be clearly understood."

Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, and other U.S. leaders earlier had made it clear that Prime Minister Fidel Castro would be in for trouble if he tried to take Guantanamo.

U.S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth told the U.N. General Assembly in New York Tuesday that Cuban and Communist bloc charges of U.S. aggression against Cuba were "monstrous distortions and downright falsehoods." But he said the United States would welcome debate on the allegations.

Cubans continued to be fed a diet of rumors of invasion threats and stories of defense preparations.

Press reports from Oriente province said Prime Minister Fidel Castro's forces were reinforcing shore defenses with artillery. Guantanamo is in Oriente.

Castro has called for volunteers among the workers' militia to learn to handle antitank and anti-aircraft weapons. Czech technicians are reported in Cuba to help train the volunteers in use of the Czech-made guns.

Warns Against Law Breaking Classes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The segregationist Capital Citizens' Council today urged Mayor Werner C. Knoop not to permit "classes in law-breaking" which it said are planned for a National Association for the Advancement of Colored People meeting here next week-end.

A letter from Dr. Malcolm G. Taylor, the council president, applied the lawbreaking phase to sit-in demonstrations which have been announced for the meeting.

Taylor wrote that "the white taxpayers of Little Rock deserve your co-operation in forbidding the use of city-owned facilities such as Dunbar Community Center as a hotbed for fomenting insurrection against the laws of Arkansas."

"Act 14 of the 1959 General Assembly specifically provides for find party members sitting home on election day.

It was in this pattern that Nixon bid for independent support from Rochester on a statewide television program. He avoided extreme criticisms of Kennedy, and projected the argument that he is better qualified than Kennedy to be president.
